A skilled and seasoned lawyer, and a valued member of our firm since 1998, Mohammed Hussain specializes in insurance law. In addition, he has handled various matters related to labor law, business law and corporate law, as well as trademark and intellectual property matters such as registrations and disputes.

His broad experience in a large array of legal matters allows Mohammed to provide expert legal advice on all kinds of disputes; and he has written several law-centric articles for the Dubai press.

Mohammed registered with the Cairo Bar Association in 2007 and with the Legal Affairs department of the Government of Dubai in 2012, thereafter becoming a legal consultant with the firm.
